P2P Ubiquities

Geneviève Vidal (LabSiC Paris XIII - France)
Vincent Mabillot (Médias/Identités Lyon II – France)

AOIR 5.0 Brighton, Falmer England – September 2005
Index

- P2P users
- Multitasking Ubiquities
- Conclusion
- Cyber-Ubiquities
- Networks Ubiquities
P2P users

- Roles typology
- Networks superpositions
- Fluctuent status

Experts - Sentinel
Animators
Averages
Newbies
Cyber ubiquities
Real user (actor) and computing presence (character)
The synchronicity allowing to act here and elsewhere

Cultural ombilical link
« Mardi gras » presence
Contribution presence
Multitasking Ubiquities

Multiuses of computer at same time

Optimization of computer activity

Multi-Internet uses

Diversion
Multi-P2PNetworks Ubiquities

Using different P2P networks at the same time

Compulsive collect
Comparative search
Preventing crisis
Conclusions

What P2P ubiquities reveal in Internet uses, social behaviour and ideology

Automediated management of collaboratives tools uses and cultural ressources

Alternatives archiving strategies

Define users as contributor, not only target consumers
Références

Some ressources about or studies and our references

http://labo.interactivite.org
Index

- P2P users
- Cyber-Ubiquities
- Multitasking Ubiquities
- Networks Ubiquities
- Conclusions